Hailed by International Piano Magazine (2019) as "part of this summer's top crop of international music festivals," RPPF proudly celebrates its 7th season at the USF School of Music with 36 students from 17 countries and an illustrious faculty of 20 world-renowned artists. Nearly 200 pianists applied for our program of intense private study, superb daily masterclasses, unique Legacy sessions, and thrilling concerts. The acclaimed Ambassador Concert Series presents RPPF students in venues throughout Tampa, Clearwater, and St. Petersburg.

RPPF was founded by Steinway Artist, Rebecca Penneys, as a tuition-free gift for aspiring collegiate pianists. It is a non-profit 501(c)(3), funded entirely by donations. Your support ensures our future! RPPF is also a gift to the Tampa Bay area - all are warmly invited to attend public events and be transported by the magic of the legendary classical piano repertoire. Admission is free although $10 donations at the door are appreciated.

A heartfelt thanks to RPPF Faculty, Staff, Donors, Volunteers, USF, the Music Gallery, and the list goes on, for helping us bring world-class pianists and piano music together for a spectacular piano immersion experience!
