

RPPF 2022 - YOUR COSTS

Note: You are expected to be in residence for the full length of the festival!

Tuition – FREE

Dorm – FREE

Meals – Pay as you go (buy and prepare your own food on site; purchase meals on- or off-campus)

Application Fee – $85.00 (non-refundable)

Registration Fee – $785.00

- Guarantees your place as an artist-student in RPPF
- As many private lessons as you wish plus participation in all classes
- Multiple performance opportunities in masterclasses, Ambassador Series, and Showcase Concerts
- Registration fee also includes amenities listed below...

Help organizing shared Uber/Lyft/bus with other students to/from Tampa International Airport (TPA)

Free local transportation to/from: shopping centers and grocery stores, RPPF events

Free Excursions & Parties: Dolphin Lunch Cruise, Beach Sunset Dinner, Chihuly Museum, & more!

Free use of USF campus BullRunner bus system (it has stops off campus too!)

Free password-protected internet access

Community kitchen available 24/7 with shared microwave, coffee maker, rice maker, and cookware

Apartment-style dorm rooms including individual temperature control, kitchen with a full refrigerator, private bedrooms, and linens provided (pillow, sheets, blanket, towel, washcloth)

Convenient coin-operated campus laundry facilities

Many delicious, nearby options for purchasing food: several grocery stores, a variety of excellent restaurants including Asian styles, large campus cafeterias with organic and buffet options

Unlimited access to USF piano practice rooms and regular piano maintenance/tuning

Optional Expenses:

Parking Pass for the full festival – $65.00

Early Arrival Dorm Fee – $65.00 (one night only; available for the night before the festival starts)